

Nature Sculpture

Nature can provide us with wonderful materials to make art. Head outside to your garden or local park to collect items with your child such as stones, leaves, flowers, feathers or twigs. Perhaps you could try making a three-dimensional self-portrait or an imaginary creature. For example, a centipede might have a small log for its body with hundreds of sticks for legs.

Support your child to get creative and see what masterpieces you can create together!